

Congressman Langevin Visits ESH – Zambarano

Congressman James Langevin visited Eleanor Slater Hospital's Zambarano Unit on August 1st to meet with staff and patients. The Congressman spent more than an hour at the hospital during his yearly visit. Patients and staff look forward to the visit to bring him up to date with the current issues of the facility. Chief Medical Officer, Dr Eleanor McCance-Katz, along with the physicians spoke about the current patient census and the needs of the hospital.

